4)Volunteer Opportunity of the Week:

Sponsored by the City of Bloomington Volunteer Network. To subscribe to CBVN's weekly email updates on volunteer opportunities, visit www.bloomington.in.gov/volunteer.

Renewable Energy Database

The Southern Indiana Renewable Energy Network (SIREN) is a community group of volunteers working to expedite the transition to renewable energy production. Volunteers will create a database of existing renewable energy projects, with the goals of networking current projects with complete ones and preparing for the 2009 National Solar Tour. Teen volunteers are welcome. Please contact Michael Beczkiewicz at (812) 333-2296 or michaelabide@yahoo.com. (www.sirensolar.org).

Jill Behrman 5K

Volunteers are needed to assist with the Jill Behrman 5K Run/Walk on Saturday benefitting Jill's House - a temporary, home-like residence for patients undergoing treatment at the Midwest Proton Radiotherapy Institute in Bloomington. Opportunities are available on the following day and time:

Sat, Oct 18	9am-11:30 am	Course support	Memorial Stadium
--------------------	---------------------	-----------------------	-------------------------

For those of you new to this race, this event is named after Jill Behrman, an IU student and Recreational Sports employee who left the SRSC in May of 2000 to go on a bike ride before work - she never showed up for work or to meet her family for lunch later in the day. After 3 years of searching, they found her body in a wooded area in Morgan County - she had been murdered. The race proceeds benefit two great causes also named after Jill: Jill's House, a temporary home-like residence for patients undergoing treatment at the MPRI proton cancer treatment center in Bloomington, and the Jill Behrman Emerging Leader Scholarship awarded to two IU students each spring. You can get more information on all of this from our website at <http://www.iurecsports.org/jbrez>.

If interested e-mail Lynn Hughes, Volunteer Coordinator at: hugheslm@indiana.edu.

Feel free to invite your friends to join you -- Thank you for considering this opportunity!

Volunteer Students Bureau Executive Board Positions

VSB is now accepting applications for the executive board. The main purpose of VSB is to provide students at Indiana University with outlets for engaging in community service. The organization plans several large-scale events during the course of the year, including the Children's Holiday Wish Program, the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Fair of Fun, Senior Citizens' Prom, the Dogwash/Dogwalk, and the Kids Mania Science Fair. VSB also volunteers at several large-scale events in the community such as Homeward Bound: Indiana's 5K Walk to Provide Housing and Fight Homelessness and Relay for Life.

Every year VSB looks for hard-working and dedicated applicants to make up the Executive Board. We are looking for students who enjoy volunteering, and who enjoy enticing others to volunteer to take on these positions. All Executive Board members are expected to fulfill their duties as expected, and in turn we hope to provide you with a fun experience to put on your resume!

If you are interested in applying, please contact the VSB at vsb@indiana.edu for more information.

5) Martin Luther King Day of Service Project Grants

Deadline: December 12, 2008

The City of Bloomington's Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Celebration Commission invites you to participate in "A Day On! Not A Day Off" on MLK Day, Monday, January 19, 2009, by planning a meaningful community service project.

The Commission will award over $20,000 in grants to local organizations which develop community service projects for King Day. This is a wonderful opportunity to obtain funding for the materials and supplies you need to do those much-needed projects or to organize a creative approach to serving your clients or helping your clients to serve the community.

Complete or download the form online at www.bloomington.in.gov/mlk.

The deadline to submit an application for funding is Dec. 12, 2008.

Questions can be directed to Craig Brenner at 349-3471 or brennerc@bloomington.in.gov or Bet Savich at 349-3472 or savichb@bloomington.in.gov.

6) The Indiana University Student Foundation's Metz Grant

All applications are due Friday, October 17th, 2008 by 4pm at the Wilcox House, located at 1606 North Fee Lane.

If you have any questions regarding the Metz Grant, please contact Tricia Runkel, IUSF Assistant Director via email at trunkel@indiana.edu by phone at (812) 855-7816 or Sarah McVey at semcvey@indiana.edu.

7) LEAD IU courses are open to a// IU students!

9) Cultural News

BEADING BEE!

October 16, 2008

6-7:30 PM at the Mathers Museum of World Cultures (416 N. Indiana Ave.)

Whether you are a beginner or an experienced beadworker, join us to learn and work on American Indian-style beading projects in a friendly, community setting! Beaders are encouraged to share techniques, materials, and conversation. Questions? E-mail nagsa@indiana.edu. Please RSVP by email! Sponsors: Native American Graduate Student Association, American Indian Student Association, Native American Community Center Of Bloomington, & Mathers Museum of World Cultures.

Tag Sale To Benefit Native American Community Center, Inc.

October 16-17, 2008: 8am-4pm at the Endwright Center

Have stuff to get rid of and want to help a good cause? Please consider donating your old, but good-condition, stuff to the Native American Community Center of Bloomington, Inc.! 100% of proceeds from our tables will go towards the $500 filing fee the NACC needs to raise to apply for 501(c)(3) tax exemption. This status is necessary to qualify for many grants. The goal of the Native American Community Center is to obtain a physical space that can serve as a community center for American Indians, Alaska Natives, and Native Americans but which will be open to everyone. We need smaller items for this event. Any events not sold at this sale will be sold at other similar events. We also need volunteers to help pick up donated items and to staff the tables from 8 AM-4 PM.

Please e-mail Patti Brundle at RICHARD_BRUNDLE_235@comcast.net if you would like to donate items or volunteer! Because we are incorporated as a nonprofit, donations to the NACC will be tax-deductible retroactively AFTER (and if) we receive 501(c)(3) status. Please be sure to let us know if you want a receipt for your donation.

October 18 ~ Salsa Fiesta

9pm – midnight at the The Lodge (101 East Sixth St.)

Description: Ritmos Latinos hosts a salsa fiesta with DJ Arturo Rodriguez who plays popular Latin dance music including salsa, bachata, merengue, and cha cha. Ritmos Latinos will perform rueda de casino, a form of salsa originating from the streets of Havana. This event is free and open to the public. Sponsored by Ritmos Latinos Salsa Dance Group. Website: <http://ritmosindy.googlepages.com>. Email: ritmosindy@gmail.com

October 24 ~ "La Presencia Africana en México"

3pm in Ballantine Hall- Room 006

Description: The Department of Spanish and Portuguese is hosting a visit for Jean-Philibert Mobwa Mobwa N'djoli, a native of the Congo, who is currently working as the Assistant Director at the National Council for the Prevention of Discrimination in Mexico City. Like other countries in Latin America and the Caribbean, Mexico still has several towns of African ancestry (Afro-Mexicans) whose origins date back to the Spanish colonization. Similar to the indigenous populations in Mexico, Afro-Mexicans suffer discrimination and maintain a community identity in response to their rejection by the broader Mexican community. Nonetheless, they differ from the indigenous groups in that they are descendants from Africa and reflect a broader linguistic and cultural diversity. Note: The talk will be presented in Spanish. Questions are welcome in English, Spanish, and French. Sponsored by Department of Spanish & Portuguese, Center for Caribbean and Latin American Studies (CLACS), International Programs.

Venue: Asian Culture Center, 807 E. 10th Street

A bi-monthly roundtable lunch discussion that allows students and community members to talk about specific topics such as: APA identity, misconceptions, model minority myth, APA and media representation, bi-racial culture, and others. Light lunch provided to participants.

DIWALI CELEBRATION

Date: Thursday, October 23, 2008

Time: 5 to 6 p.m. at the Mathers Museum, 416 N. Indiana Avenue

6 to 8 p.m. at the IU Asian Culture Center, 807 E. 10th Street

Presented by Mathers Museum, ACC's Asian Cultures Around Campus, and Indian Student Association. Diwali, also known as the "Festival of Lights," is one of the most popular Indian festivals. Symbolizing the victory of good over evil, lamps are lit as a sign of celebration and hope for humankind. It's also a time for family and friends, so come celebrate this joyous occasion with stories, crafts, and hands-on activities. Presented in partnership with Asian Cultures Around Campus. Free and open to the public.

News from the International Center

Get to Know Bloomington Series – "Wylie House Museum"

The "Get to Know Bloomington" series will be providing a tour of the "Wylie House Museum" this weekend. The tour will provide an opportunity to explore a small piece of Indiana University history as we tour the home of the university's first president, Andrew Wylie. Clinton Global Initiative University (CGI U) 2009

I am excited to announce the launch of the Clinton Global Initiative University (CGI U) 2009 student application. CGI U is an initiative of the William J. Clinton Foundation that inspires the next generation of leaders to take effective action on pressing global challenges.

Universities are witnessing a growing number of students with the potential and passion to make a difference in the world. To advance these efforts, CGI U is pleased to invite young leaders from your campus to join President Clinton, students, activists, and university administrators at the CGI U second Annual Meeting from February 13 to 15, 2009 at University of Texas at Austin.

CGI U places emphasis on action by helping young leaders to take concrete steps toward addressing issues in the areas of education, energy & climate change, human rights & peace, global health, and poverty alleviation. Each attendee makes a Commitment to Action - a tangible contribution toward solving a specific problem on his or her campus or in the wider global community.

Since the inaugural meeting in March 2008 at Tulane University, nearly 1,000 commitments have already been made by students and universities worldwide. Help us spread the word to your students so they don't miss out - tell them to apply today, make their own commitments, and connect with other students who want to make a difference.

Attending CGI U is FREE and travel assistance is available for those who qualify.

The deadline for early decision applications to CGI U is November 7, 2008. The final deadline for applications is December 12, 2008.

Make sure your school is represented and encourage your students to apply today.

To learn more, visit CGIU.org and sign up for e-mail updates.
