

News You Can Use

October 5th, 2009

In this issue:

- 1) Volunteer Opportunity of the Week
 - 2) Leadership Opportunity of the Week
 - 3) Upcoming events
 - 4) News from the Cultural Centers
 - 5) Additional opportunities
- *****

1) Volunteer Opportunity of the Week:

Accompany Options Customers on Jill Behrman Walk - Oct. 24

Options customers will be participating in the Jill Behrman Walk on Sat., Oct. 24, and they need volunteers to walk with them! The walk begins at 9:30 a.m., starting at Memorial Stadium. All volunteers will receive an Options T-shirt, many thanks, and the great feeling of helping people with disabilities to be more active members of their community! Minimum age is 18.

2) Leadership Opportunities of the Week:

Men and Women of Color Leadership Conferences

In honor of our nation's first African-American president, and recent political trends, the conference committees have decided to revamp our approach this year and combine both Men and Women of Color Leadership Conferences into one unique event.

Registration and call for proposal submissions are now open for the 1st Men and Women of Color Leadership Conference at Indiana University! Registration and proposal forms are available on line at www.iub.edu/~moc. Please mark your calendars for Friday, November 13 – Saturday, November 14, 2009 at Indiana University, Bloomington. This year's conference theme is "Bridging the Gap: Building Upon the 2008 Election." All men and women are encouraged to attend.

For more info: www.indiana.edu/~moc!

3) Upcoming Events

WHAT: Event Planning, Hospitality, and Tourism Networking Night

When: Tuesday, October 6, 2009 6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Where: Devault Alumni Center, 1000 E. 17th Street

Why: Please join IU Alumni and career professionals in diverse careers within the Event Planning, Hospitality, and Tourism industry for an evening of networking. Guest speakers will participate in a panel discussion focusing on their career paths, organizational opportunities, and sharing advice for students entering the world-of-work. An introduction to networking will follow with light refreshments and the opportunity to mingle with the guest speakers. Registration required through your myIUcareers account.

What: FREE poker and FREE food

When: Every Wednesday from 7:00 -9:00 p.m.

Where: In the Market in the Indiana Memorial Union (by pizza hut)

Weekly $20 prize!

Sponsored by the Union Board.

What: Dinner with 12 Hoosiers with Danny Lopez

Who: Danny Lopez, City of Bloomington Communications Director

When: October 8th, 6:00 p.m.

Where: City Hall, carpooling available

Why: A chance to meet the highly successful Danny Lopez. Danny has served as the Managing Partner of a consulting and public relations firm. Prior to this position, Danny served as Assistant Director of Athletics for Outreach and Communications for the Oxford College Athletic Department in Atlanta, GA.

Danny currently uses Indiana University student interns! Don't miss this incredible networking opportunity. Attendance is limited, so RSVP to iusaa@indiana.edu to attend.

What: 2009 LIFE SCIENCES CAREER FAIR

When: Thursday, October 8, 2009 11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Where: IU Auditorium Grand Foyer

Why: Indiana University is committed to the state-wide mission of supporting the field of life sciences. The Life Sciences Career Fair gives IU undergraduate and graduate students from a variety of majors the opportunity to connect with life sciences organizations recruiting entry level and advanced positions and/or internships in the sciences, business, technology, liberal arts, public relations, marketing, management, human resources and more!

For more info and a list of attending employers, visit IUCareers.com.

What: Dinner with 12 Hoosiers with Bloomington Mayor Mark Kruzan

When: October 22th, 5:30 – 7:30 p.m.

Who: Mark Kruzan, City of Bloomington Mayor

Where: City Hall, carpooling available

Why: Mark Kruzan graduated with degrees in Journalism and Political Science in 1982 and from the Indiana University-Bloomington School of Law in 1985. He has served as an Adjunct Professor at the IU School of Public and Environmental Affairs, and was elected eight times to represent Bloomington at the Indiana General Assembly. He was appointed House Minority Whip, and later became Majority Leader of the Indiana House of Representatives.

Don't miss an incredible opportunity to meet and network with the Mayor in an intimate environment. Attendance is limited, so email iusaa@indiana.edu to RSVP.

What: Volunteer for the 26th Annual Red Cross BOOK FAIR

When: We need volunteers from Thursday, September 24th through Thursday, October 8th

Where: Monroe County Fairgrounds, Commercial Building West

Why: The Red Cross Book Fair is right around the corner. This is the ideal service opportunity for students: long-running, with flexible hours and diverse opportunities that offer something for everyone. And, not least, it's a lot of fun, and a great way for students to give back to their community (with proceeds going directly into disaster relief, services to armed forces, and lifesaving classes, right here in Monroe and Owen Counties)!

For more info: laurenjohnson@monroe-redcross.org

What: Belt Out Laughing!

When: Thursday, October 15, 7:30 pm

Where: Buskirk-Chumley Theater in Downtown Bloomington

Why: An evening of standup comedy featuring Josh Blue, winner of Season 4 of "Last Comic Standing" With opening act by local comedy favorite, Brad Wilhelm. Tickets are now on sale at the theater box office or online at www.buskirkchumley.org

This event is a celebration of the 50th Anniversary of Stone Belt, a Bloomington-based non-profit organization providing resources and supports for individuals with developmental disabilities.

For more info: www.stonebelt.org.

Who: Union Board

What: The Howard Home Coming Experience

When: October 23-25, 2009

Where: Washington, D.C.

Why: Because it's fun! Union Board will be hosting a trip to Washington D.C. to experience Howard University Homecoming and tour the City. The trip costs $175 and is for IU students only. Deadline to reserve your spot is October 9, 2009.

*If you were unable to make the Call Out Meeting then come to the Union Board Office (in the IMU 2nd floor, above Starbucks). There are a LIMITED amount of seats available and it is on a first come first serve basis. For those of you who have already signed up contact me to make sure all of your papers are filled out and turned in correctly.

If you would like to attend this Awesome trip HURRY UP BECAUSE THE SEATS ARE FILLING UP FAST!

For more info: destinat@indiana.edu

What: Jill Behrman 5K Run/Walk

When: Saturday, October 24th. Race starts at 10:00 a.m.

Why: This year marks the 10th anniversary of the disappearance of Jill Behrman. Jill was a sophomore at Indiana University, and an employee of Campus Recreational Sports. One day after work she went on a bike ride and never returned. Three years later it was discovered she was murdered in a wooded area in Morgan County. As a result, the Jill Behrman 5K was born, as well as the Jill Behrman Emerging Leader Scholarship and Jill's House. IU Campus Rec Sports has been proud to present the JB5K to the campus and community for the past nine years using the proceeds to benefit both Jill's House and the Jill Behrman Emerging Leader Scholarship.

Join us for our 10th Anniversary race on October 24th!!

You can register online at recsports.indiana.edu, or at the SRSC and HPER. Registration is $20 before October 7th, and $25 after! You can charge it to your Bursar if you register at the SRSC or HPER!

See you October 24th!

What: PALS 9th Annual Fun Show

When: Volunteer Shifts are Oct. 23rd 1pm-5pm, Oct. 24th 9am - 1pm and 12:30pm - 5:30pm

Where: Ellington Stables, 680 West That Rd., Bloomington, IN

Why: The PALS Ninth Annual Fun Show is a fun-filled event that offers all PALS riders the chance to participate in a full day of activities that showcase their skills learned at PALS. Volunteers are needed to help with various parts of the event, such as event set up, parking, concessions, event clean up, taking pictures or video at the event. Lunch from the Trojan Horse will be provided. We are appealing to volunteer groups and would like for the groups to consist of between 5 -10 volunteers. There is little to no interaction with horses. You may stay after your shift or come before to enjoy the event if you would like.

For more info: Contact Tessa Rossi tessarossi87@gmail.com or (646) 645-0876 to sign up to volunteer.

What: Screams and chills with Dennis James and Alfred Hitchcock performance

When: October 29th 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

Where: We'll MeetUp at IU Auditorium.

The Bloomington Halloween Meetup Group will be doing vignette - sketches with a Vampire Theme before and at intermission of the "Screams and chills with Dennis James and Alfred Hitchcock performance".

Volunteers are needed in the following areas:

4 females of medium build (to fit costumes which are provided) for Vampire Brides

3 males to pose as Vampiress Victims (wearing street clothes)

A photographer volunteer would be a welcome addition too.

Costumes are rated G for everyone. Volunteers should have a sense of fun and be comfortable hamming it up. If you like all things Halloween please join our Meetup group, the more the merrier.

<http://www.meetup.com/Adult-Bloomington-Halloween-Events-Scene/>

For more info: MeetUp coordinator: Jan Lamm 812-334-2029 janlamm@aol.com

4) Cultural News

Asian Culture Center

ACC's Monday Table Topics Presents Graduate Students' Research: "Japanese in Chicago between 1900 and 1920

With support from IU Asian American Studies Program

Date: Monday, October 5, 2009 12 - 1 p.m.

Venue: ACC, 807 E. 10th Street

Come and learn more about how the Japanese community steadily developed in size and structure between 1900s and 1920s in the Chicago area. Doctoral student in History, Mayumi Hoshino will share what she uncovered in her research over lunch on Nov. 9. Please bring your friends.

Monday Table Topics is a monthly discussion and luncheon with graduate students and visiting scholars at Indiana University. The roundtable serves as one of the many informal outlets for scholars to talk about topics that are related to Asian cultures, history, arts, education, politics, government, and business. A light free lunch is hosted by the IU Asian American Studies Program.

"Hidden Internment: The Art Shibayama Story"

October 7 6:00 p.m. for the screening and 7pm for discussion Venue: Asian Culture Center

Description: Asian Culture Center's Over a Cup of Tea, in partnership with La Casa Latino Cultural Center presents "Hidden Internment: The Art Shibayama Story". Hidden Internment reveals the lesser-known history of the Japanese Latin American internment through the life story of Art Shibayama, who was taken from Peru on March 22, 1944, and interned in a Department of Justice camp in Crystal City, Texas. At age 13, Art was just one of over 2,000 Latin Americans who were forcibly uprooted and interned. Despite his incarceration, Art was denied the redress that had been provided to Japanese Americans. After years of struggle, Arts is still fighting for reparations and a full disclosure of this human rights violation.

La Casa Latino Culture Center

"Plaff!-Demasiado miedo a la vida" (Splat! - Too Afraid of Life)

October 6 6:30 p.m. at Wylie Hall 005

Film: A jealous mother tries to undermine her son's marriage to a modern young woman by using Santería, but she is constantly dodging the assaults of a mysterious egg-thrower. Cuba, 1988. D: Juan Carlos Tabio. 110 minutes. Sponsored by Department of Spanish and Portuguese and Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies.

LGSA Monthly Mass Meeting

October 6 7:00 -8:00 p.m. at La Casa

Description: The Latin@ Graduate Student Association would like to invite you to our Mass Meeting. During this meeting we will discuss the organization, connect to IU Latino community members and, most importantly, get to know each other. All are welcome! LGSA seeks to enhance the Latin@ campus experience by providing an environment that facilitates the retention of our members in graduate programs, through academic and social activities. We support the efforts of other organizations committed to Latin@ students and strive to develop a network that includes all members of the Bloomington community. INFO?

lgsa@indiana.edu.

First Nations Educational and Cultural Center

Employment Opportunity at First Nations Educational and Cultural Center!!!

1. Undergraduate Work Study Position
2. Graduate Work Study Position

Undergraduate Work-Study Position

Employment Start/End Date: Immediately - May 10, 2010

*Job Description: Technology: Develop and maintain a scholarship database.

Qualifications

Technology: have basic knowledge of computers including database, spreadsheet, and word processing software.

Graduate Work Study Position

Employment Start/End Date: Immediately - May 10, 2010

*Job Description: Technology: Develop and maintain a scholarship database.

Qualifications:

Technology: have basic knowledge of computers including database, spreadsheet, and word processing software.

Application Method:

Drop off letters of interest and CVs at FNECC, Weatherly Hall 203, 400 N. Sunrise Drive, Indiana University or email letters of interest and CVs to fnecc@indiana.edu.

For detailed job descriptions, please contact fnecc@indiana.edu

International Center

Please note the date change on the announcement below. The starting date has been changed from September 30th to October 14th. Thank you.

Free Yoga Class

In Sanskrit yoga means union. It helps you bring your body, mind, and spirit together letting you become more aware of your true potential. Yoga is there for you to broaden your understanding of yourself and the world around you. Held at an informal and relaxed setting, this class will help you find your own expression through yogic poses, breathing techniques, relaxation, and guided meditation. It will give you tools to develop your individual practice and continue on your own. Classes will begin on Wednesday, October 14th, from 7:00-8:00 p.m. at the International Center.

5) Additional Opportunities

IU Circle of Life

The Indiana University Circle of Life, who puts on the IU Mini Marathon and 5k races every spring, is currently looking for new leaders on campus. All benefits from our organization go to helping cancer survivors attend Indiana University. We offer a great opportunity for students to develop leadership skills as well other experience and to build upon their resume in preparing for post-graduation. The next Call-Out meeting is Thursday, October 1 at 9:00pm in GEO 143. All leadership positions are open so stop by to learn more. If you have any questions about positions or the Call-Out meeting please email mooreks@indiana.edu

The IUB Academic Year Internship Program in Sustainability

Continuing the tradition of the Indiana University Task Force on Sustainability, the Office of Sustainability (IUOS) addresses issues of environmental sustainability in campus operations, academic programs, and university-community relations. This academic year, we are seeking another group of outstanding undergraduate and graduate students dedicated to advancing sustainability at Indiana University Bloomington.

To apply, send a brief statement of interest, specifying which of the following project(s) you would be interested in working on, a 1-2 page resume, and one letter of reference by email to sustain@indiana.edu or (if there are problems with electronic submission) by mail to Sustainability Program Director, Emilie Rex, at the Office of Sustainability, Geology 429, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, 47405 no later than 5:00 PM, Monday, October 5th, 2009. General information about the IUB Sustainability Program can be found at <https://www.indiana.edu/~sustain>. Information on past internship projects is also available on the web at <https://www.indiana.edu/~sustain/sustainabilityiu/internship-projects/>.

Questions regarding internships or the application process can also be directed to sustain@indiana.edu.

Get involved in Homecoming 2009!

Friday, October 9th—Saturday, October 17th

Schedule of Events:

October 9th: Big Man on Campus, Greek Lawn Judging

October 12th: Nearly Naked Mile
October 13th: IU Spirit Day, IU Blood Donor Challenge, Chris Cagle Concert
October 14th: Cornhole Tournament and Bonfire
October 15th: Yell Like Hell Spirit Competition
October 16th: 51st Annual Homecoming Parade and Pep Rally, Hoosier Hysteria
October 17th: IU v. Illinois football game

For more info and to register for events: <http://alumni.indiana.edu/events/homecoming/home2009.shtml>.
Questions? Email iusaa@indiana.edu.

Brought to you by the IU Alumni Association and IU Student Alumni Association.

Journey Student Fellows

Who Are Journey Student Fellows?

- Indiana college students from related academic disciplines who have a passion for working with youth
- Students interested in applying what they have learned in the classroom to improve the lives of youth
- Emerging civic-minded leaders who are committed to making a contribution that will last far beyond their internship.

If you are a student interested in participating in The Journey or you are a college faculty or administrator and would like to obtain info materials for your students or department, please contact:

Kelly Frank, Director of Campus Exploration at kelly@thejourneyonline.org, Office: 317-875-5756, Mobile: 317-435-2529

American Red Cross Book Fair

The 26th annual American Red Cross Book Fair, held at the Monroe County Fairgrounds October 1 – 6th, will feature a selection of over 80,000 gently used books, CDs, videos, DVDs, cassettes, records, games, puzzles, maps, sheet music, and many other items, all of which will be on sale at bargain prices. Every day offers something special for our patrons.

For more info or to volunteer: 812-332-7292 or visit us on the web at <http://www.monroe-redcross.org>.

Advertise in the Indiana Daily Student

Need to get the word out? Consider the IDS. We reach 94% of students, Monday through Friday.

For more info: idssales@indiana.edu or 812-855-0763.

Funding Available through Office of Multicultural Initiatives

The Office of Multicultural Initiatives is very pleased to announce that we may have a small amount of funds available for your events. If you are organizing cultural, educational or other types of events on campus and are looking for cosponsors, please contact us at omi@indiana.edu. You will have to submit a brief program proposal: its purpose, audience, date, and time. Funding requests should be made at least one month prior to your scheduled event. Please make sure that on your subject line you state, "Event funding request."

Once we receive your proposal, our office will evaluate it and will notify you about funding. Since we have many student organizations that are active and produce wonderful programs, we are limiting the funds to one per student organization on a first-come, first-served basis. Please take advantage of this wonderful opportunity and submit your request to us as soon as possible. If you have any questions regarding this, do not hesitate to contact us (omi@indiana.edu)

The Metz Grant

Want $5,000 for YOUR student organization?!

ATTENTION ALL STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS!

The IU Student Foundation is proud to announce: The Metz Grant for IU student organizations seeking financial support for a philanthropic cause. Applications Due October 16, 2009

For more info: <http://iusf.indiana.edu/metz/>

Please direct questions to:

Caitlin Callahan at calcalla@indiana.edu

Lindsay Perrin at laperrin@indiana.edu

Or Anne Fischgrund at afischgr@indiana.edu

Student Activities

Indiana Memorial Union room 371

<http://sao.indiana.edu>

(812) 855-4311