

News You Can Use

December 5th, 2008

"In times of great stress or adversity, it's always best to keep busy, to plow your anger and your energy into something positive." ~ Lee Jacocca

In this issue:

- 1) Volunteer opportunities
- 2) Upcoming events
- 3) News from the Cultural Centers
- 4) Additional opportunities

1) Volunteer Opportunities

APPLY TO BE AN A.C.E.

Are you passionate about community service, leadership, and advocacy? Do you want a job that makes a difference?

Apply to be an ACE! The Advocates for Community Engagement (ACEs) are IU undergraduates who serve as liaisons between service-learning students and local non-profits. Through the support of paid undergraduate assistantships with the Office of Service-Learning, each ACE serves with a specific agency for at least two semesters. New ACEs will have the opportunity to take a 3-credit course required for participation in the program in the Spring of 2010, L306: From Local to Global. The ACE program also provides leadership development and a campus community of peers for students of diverse backgrounds who have a common commitment to service.

Open positions include (but are not limited to): My Sister's Closet, Boys and Girls Club, Hilltop Garden and Nature Center, Volunteers In Medicine, and Headstart.

To learn more or to apply on-line, visit <http://www.indiana.edu/~copsl/aces.shtml>.

Deadline for applications: February 20th, 2009

Children's Holiday Wish Program

Help every child in the Bloomington community look forward to the joy and magic of the holiday season by supporting the Children's Holiday Wish Program. We will send you a child's holiday wish list and you can make their holiday wishes come true! Thank you so much for your help and we look forward to working with you! Sponsored by the Volunteer Students Bureau at Indiana University.

To become a sponsor, please e-mail us at bhargava@indiana.edu or ysb@indiana.edu.

KING DAY 2009 ESSAY COMPETITION: "Times of Challenge and Controversy"

This year's theme is drawn from Dr. King's reminder that we are not to be measured by how we act in times of "comfort and convenience," but how we act in times of "challenge and controversy" (Strength to Love, 1963). Dr. Calvin Mackie, in his address at the 2008 IU King Day Celebration, spoke of his disappointment in many leaders' reaction to the devastation of his hometown, New Orleans, in the wake of hurricane Katrina, and how poorly served the people of Louisiana were in this time of challenge. His recent book, A View from the Roof: Lessons for Life and Business, urges every person to undertake the following endeavors:

- 1) Serving others to help them grow and develop as human beings
- 2) Solving problems that prevent people from reaching their potential
- 3) Promoting and saving causes that benefit humankind

The MLK Day Essay Committee invites graduate and undergraduate students of IUB to submit an original essay that draws on their experience to respond to this question:

How have you [or someone you admire] answered Dr. Mackie's call, and begun to take action to fulfill the expectation Dr. King held for all people in times of "challenge and controversy"?

Successful essays will answer the question, make specific reference not only to the writer's personal experience and observations, but also to the life, times, and writings of Dr. King.

Length: 1,000-1,500 words (4-5 pages)

Eligibility: All IUB graduate and undergraduate students*

*previous first-place award winners are not eligible

Prizes: To be awarded in both graduate and undergraduate categories:

1st: 32 GB I-Touch + iHome iH9B6 Speaker

2nd: 8 GB I-Touch + iHome iH9B6 Speaker

3rd: 16 GB I-Pod Nano

Submissions:

Writers should submit six (6) copies of their completed essays by 5:00 pm on Monday, December 8, 2008, to the Office of the Vice President for Diversity, Equity and Multicultural Affairs, Bryan Hall, Room 115. ESSAYS SUBMITTED DIRECTLY TO JUDGES OR COMMITTEE MEMBERS WILL BE AUTOMATICALLY DISQUALIFIED. To ensure blind judging, writers should not show drafts of final copies of their essays to committee members or judges. Writers should place their names, addresses, phone numbers, and e-mail addresses on a separate sheet; their names should not appear in the text of their essays.

Volunteer Opportunity of the Week:

Sponsored by the City of Bloomington Volunteer Network. To subscribe to CBVN's weekly email updates on volunteer opportunities, visit www.bloomington.in.gov/volunteer.

Basketball Banquet (Dec. 14) and Winter Break Camp (12/22, 23, 29, 30)

Banquet Volunteers for the Boys And Girls Club are needed on Sunday, Dec. 14 for the Honors Banquet for Bloomington Youth Basketball, held at Jackson Creek Middle School. Volunteers will help with serving and with supervision of the bounce house and free play in the gym. Shifts are from 10:45 a.m.-1 p.m., 1:15 -3:30 p.m. and 3:45-5:30 p.m. Winter Break Camp volunteers will be paired with staff members and act as counselors, helping that staff member lead 10-12 campers throughout the day.

Depending on the shift chosen, they might also accompany them on their daily field trip. Camp Days: December 22, 23, 29, and 30; shifts are 8:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. or 12:30-4:30 p.m. Minimum age is 18. Please contact Audrey Hall at (812) 332-5311 or ahall@bgcbloomington.org. (www.bgcbloomington.org)

Office of Women's Affairs Student Advisory Board

Office for Women's Affairs (OWA) is forming a Student Advisory Board to collaborate with Dean of Women's Affairs, Yvette Alex-Assensoh. The members will convene on a monthly basis to discuss issues pertaining to women on campus, and to take necessary steps to create a better campus community. Working alongside the Office for Women's Affairs, IU Student Association is seeking individuals who are actively engaged in the University to represent the student body by serving on the Student Advisory Board. If interested in attending an initial call-out meeting, please contact Abby Skinner at acskinne@indiana.edu, or call 317-501-8873.

Shalom Community Center Needs Your Help!!

Each year, Shalom Community Center sponsors an Adopt-A-Family Holiday Wish Fulfillment Program, and this year we have more needy and deserving families than ever signed up to receive gifts for their children. We're asking you, as student organizations, to step up to the challenge and adopt a family to sponsor and help provide gifts for. We have all the wish forms completed, the rest is up to you!

If you're interested in sponsoring a needy family either as an organization or as an individual, please contact myself (information below) or Pam Kinnaman at (812) 334-5734 or pam@shalomcommunitycenter.org. Let's work together to make this holiday season a great success!

QUESTIONS??? Respond to nicole@shalomcommunitycenter.org -or- nholderm@umail.iu.edu

2) Upcoming Events

Who: Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. - Bloomington Alumnae Chapter & I.U. Black Graduate Student Association

What: First Friday: Steppin' Out

When: December 5th, 7:00pm – 1:00am

Where: Neal-Marshall Black Culture Center, 275 North Jordan Avenue, Bloomington, IN 47405

Why: Join us for an evening of networking, two step lessons and demonstrations, bid whist lessons, dancing, and card playing (truly a little something for everyone)! This is a 21 and up event.

TICKET PRICE: $8 Will Call / $10 Door * light hors d'oeuvres will be served *

For more info: SteppinOutBloomington@gmail.com.

Who: Come one, come all to Queens Who Care!

What: Benefit for Positive Link

When: Sunday, December 7th from 7-9pm

Where: Fine Arts Building on campus, will carry over to Jakes Night Club that evening from 10 to close for the 21+ crowd. All performers from Jakes will be donating their tips to Positive Link as well.

Why: Miss Gay IU; Britney Taylor, in conjunction with the Miss Gay IU Pageant and OUT GLBT Student Union will be putting on a one night only DRAG benefit show, featuring some of the best in female impersonation. We will be raising money and food-items for those in need living with HIV/AIDS this Holiday Season. Admission is one NON-perishable food item or a monetary donation of your choice.

Additionally, ALL tips collected by performers throughout the evening will be donated, along with all food items to Positive Link who will distribute to those in need.

For more info: Please email out@indiana.edu with any questions! www.indiana.edu/~out/

Who: Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

What: 12 Days of Christmas – help wrap gift baskets

When: Tuesday, December 9th

Where: the Grand Hall of the Neal Marshall Culture Center

Why: Every year, the Zetas ask and collect contributed donations that are used to purchase basic needs items (such as socks, hats and gloves, etc.) for needy families. These twelve baskets were then divided into two groups of six. The first six were donated to the Middle way house/ Rize and the remaining six baskets were donated to the Salvation Army. However, this year the Zetas would love to help more families so we are asking for contributions to help make our goal to help more families come true.

We are requesting that on this day the campus will join us, and help us put the baskets together.

The Zetas are ecstatic to have this program this year. Therefore, we would love to have your participation and or contributions. We will be at the commons lit desk (mezzanine level of the IMU) this week with a donation box, so be on the lookout for our very personalized Christmassy-spirited poster. Thank-you for your time, contributions and patience, but most of all thank-you for your generous compassion.

For more info: crowlins@indiana.edu

Who: Student Alumni Association

What: IU v. Butler Women’s Hoops Party – Member Social

When: Tuesday, December 9th 6:00pm

Where: Devault Alumni Center

Why: Cheer on the lady Hoosiers with SAA! We’ll meet for pizza at the DAC before the game and head over to Assembly Hall together. Women’s games are a blast, with good basketball and lots of prizes plus they are free with a student ID.

For More info: www.indiana.edu/~saa

Who: Student Alumni Association

What: Do Your Laundry!

When: Wednesday, November 19th

Where: Jordan Hall and around campus

Why: Wear your SAA t-shirt on campus for a chance to win great prizes and SAA gear! Our prize patrol team will be on campus looking for members with shirts on. There will also be a prize table in Jordan Hall. Bring your friends by to have them sign up for membership! NOT in Bloomington? Send us a picture!

For more info: <http://alumni.indiana.edu/saa/TshirtDay.shtml>

What: Brown Bag with Delphine Criscenzo “Contemporary struggles among the Cherokee Freedmen”

Where: Memorial Hall East M39

When: December 10, 2008, 12:00pm – 1:30pm

Why: The Cherokee Indians used to own slaves and after the abolition of slavery and the treaty signed in 1866 with the federal government, the former Cherokee slaves and their descendants were given Cherokee citizenship. However, for the past 30 years several strategies and policies have been designed to exclude the descendants of the Cherokee freedmen from first the electoral process, and second the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma.

Who: Indiana University Circle of Life

What: Indiana University Mini Marathon and 5k

When: April 4, 2009

Why: Proceeds from the race go to an endowment fund at the Indiana University Foundation established to grant scholarships, the Bill Z Littlefield Scholarship for Survivors, to young cancer survivors to help support their dreams of attending one of the eight Indiana University campuses. Participants and donors have a unique opportunity to impact in the life of a young man or woman who has survived cancer, sometimes with huge medical debt, and desires the privilege of a college education.

For more info: Heather Flannagan, hmlanna@indiana.edu

Who: Channel 3 (CATS)

What: "Cultural Lens": a new campus-community television program focusing on diversity related events and issues

When: Wednesdays at 8 pm

Whether you're interested in festivals, lively conversations with warm-hearted people, or how to avoid stumbling blocks in intercultural communication, you will want to tune-in to "Cultural Lens." We will help you see Monroe County from a new perspective.

For more info: culturallens@gmail.com

3) Cultural News

INTERNATIONAL CENTER

Friday Noon Concerts

We invite you to join us for this week's Noon Concert on Friday, December 5th, from 12:00pm - 1:30 p.m. This week we welcome violinist Emmanuel Borowsky. Take a break in the day and enjoy wonderful music as well as the light lunch that will be served afterwards. Bring a friend!

Practical English Tutorials (P.E.T.) Program

The P.E.T. program will meet this Saturday, December 6th from 12:00pm - 1:00 p.m. Please note that there will be one more session on December 13th before the semester ends. We will resume our regular schedule in January and the exact date will be announced later.

ASIAN CULTURAL CENTER

APIA U 101 is coming to IU February 7!

Limited to a number of 60 participants only and it's free! You do not have to be a member of any Asian student groups on campus to join. So check your calendars and reserve a spot now by emailing Mai-Lin Poon at acc@indiana.edu. Open to all APA college students in Indiana and nearby campuses outside of Indiana.

The Organization of Chinese Americans (OCA), an advocacy group based in Washington, D.C., has chosen the IU Asian Culture Center to be a host school for Asian/Pacific Islander American College Leadership Training this coming February 7!

February 7, 2009

Time: 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Venue: State Room East, Indiana Memorial Union

Lunch and breakfast provided. Dinner at the ACC, 807 E. 10th Street to all registered participants only after the workshop.

February 8, 2009, 9 a.m. to 12 noon – Meeting with OCA workshop presenters for registered participants. This is optional and by appointment.

Venue: IU Asian Culture Center,

This will be the first time that APIA U will be hosted in Indiana; former host sites include Cornell University, Boston College, U Penn, and Yale University. APIA student leaders from colleges and universities all over Indiana and nearby States will be invited to take part in this intensive training. APIA U: Leadership 101 is a hands-on program that concentrates on the development of leadership and organization skills that are pertinent to all campuses and communities. The workshop will focused on self-awareness, team building, and taking action. The training hopes to give students tools to become catalysts for change by empowering them to develop their identities as strong APIA leaders and advocates. This training also hopes to build bridges between student groups, foster a sense of unity, and camaraderie while striving to impact others.

FIRST NATIONS EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL CENTER

Invitation to IUB Students: Relax, Refresh, Recharge!

December 8, 2008

6-8pm Pizza and Massage (3-9pm Study Tables) at the FNECC (Eigenmann Hall 601, 1900 E. 10th St)
Getting ready to face the Stress of Finals? Stop by the FNECC for free pizza and a free 5-minute massage from 6-8pm. Study tables are designed to provide a quiet atmosphere conducive to studying. Peer student is on hand to assist with studying, answer questions, and generally role model and support good study habits.

Film "The Doe Boy"

December 10, 2008 7-9pm at the FNECC (Eigenmann Hall 601)

Set in the heart of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma, "The Doe Boy" tells the story of Hunter, a young man of mixed parentage, who is never quite at home in the complicated circumstances of his life- including his hemophilia. Eventually he must find a way to be his own man, facing love, death, and the perils of his illness.

LA CASA

December 7 & 12 ~ Christmas Matins; 17TH & 18TH century music from Latin American Cathedrals

Family Matinee/Rose Firebay (John Waldron Arts Center), Bloomington IN, December 7th 2:00 p.m.
122 S. Walnut Street, Bloomington. United Methodist Church of Bloomington, December 12th 7:00 p.m.
219 E 4th St, Bloomington

A Christmas Matins celebration is offered by the early music ensemble Fenix De Los Ingenios with guest director Egberto Bermudez, Colombian musicologist and early music scholar. This program will feature vocal and instrumental Christmas pieces from several Latin American Cathedrals. Fenix De Los Ingenios is a bloomington-based ensemble that specializes in Iberian American early music. The ensemble is first prize winner of the 2004 competition for the performance of music from Latin America and Spain offered by Indiana University, and invited guest ensemble by prominent institutions such as the Indianapolis Museum of Art and the Colegio Complutense at Harvard University. Fenix will be joined by six guest artists; Angélique Zuluaga, Colleen Hughes, sopranos, Armeé Hong and Daniel Stein, violins, Juan Carlos Arango, Bajon, Erica Rubis, Baroque cello, Bernard Gordillo, organ and Baroque guitarist and invited director, Egberto Bermudez. This program includes works by Rafael Castellanos, Roque Ceruti, Jose Francisco Velazquez, Tomas Torrejon y Velasco and Jose Cascante.

4) Additional Opportunities

IUSA Diversity Calendar

Finding it hard to keep up with all of the diversity events on campus? IUSA has the answer! The IUSA department of Diversity has a blog for student groups to interact and share events with other groups and students on campus. So, you'll never be left out of the loop! This blog is open to all students and campus groups. Visit the blog at iusadiversity.blogspot.com and join in on the conversation. Email iusa.diversity@gmail.com or contact the Director of Diversity, RJ Campbell at rajcampb@indiana.edu with questions or concerns.

Participate In a History Making Event!

January 19th Roundtrip Bus To Inauguration Parade - $185

Catch-A-Ride transportation service, Indiana University's premier bus service, is making it easy and affordable for students/faculty/community who wants to attend the history making inaugural parade for Barak Obama to witness and participate in this groundbreaking event - firsthand! Round trip tickets for the January 19th, 5:00pm departure are just $185. Seats are limited. Book yours today so that you won't miss out on this once-in-a-lifetime event.

Note: This is a round trip service with no hotel stay. Bus arrives the morning of the inauguration parade and departs on its return trip to Indiana University at 8:00 pm the same day.

Depart: Jan. 19, 2009 - 5:00 pm - Memorial Union, Indiana University
Arrive: Jan. 20, 2009 5:00 am - Maryland Metro Station/Washington DC Metro Station
Depart: Jan. 20, 2009 - 8:00 pm - Washington DC Metro Station/Maryland Metro Station
Arrive: Jan. 21, 2009 - 8:00 am - Memorial Union, Indiana University

Stopovers for food and beverages will occur in route and snacks will be available on the bus. Book tickets and view details online at www.catcharide.com or call (866) 622-8242

Hoosiers for Higher Education (HHE)

-  Do you value your IU education and want future employers and graduate schools to value it, too?
-  Are your textbooks too expensive?
-  Do you want to help IU further its status as a world class university?
-  Would you like to share your IU experience and speak with the people who represent you in the Statehouse?

HOOSIERS FOR HIGHER EDUCATION (HHE) is a grassroots advocacy organization that is sponsored by the IU Alumni Association and works in conjunction with the Office of the Vice President of Public Affairs and Government Relations. Our primary goal is to engage our members to connect with state and federal legislators about the importance of supporting funding and policies that will ensure that IU continues to be a premiere international teaching and research institution.

Our members are alumni, students, faculty, staff, parents, friends of IU, and anyone who cares about the future of higher education in Indiana. Membership is FREE, and members also receive an invitation to HHE's 18th Annual Statehouse Visit in Indianapolis on February 17, 2009.

Students of ALL majors can make a significant contribution just by signing up for free membership. Sign up for your free membership and get more information today at www.gov.indiana.edu/hhe, and ensure that IU remains an integral part of Indiana's future. Make your voice heard!

Volunteer Abroad, Be Part of Global Problem Solving Unite For Sight: Recruiting and Training New Leaders in Global Health

<http://www.uniteforsight.org/volunteer-abroad>

Unite For Sight has been featured weekly on CNN International and in The New York Times

Unite For Sight engages, inspires, and trains volunteers to support and assist eye clinics globally. Volunteers receive hands-on training in international community-based eye care, public health, and international development, and while immersed in effective Unite For Sight programs, they gain skills to become new leaders in global health dedicated to creating lasting solutions. Unite For Sight's programs also demonstrate the highest standards in social entrepreneurship.

- Experience the thrill of contributing to change on the highest level
- Be part of global problem solving
- Receive training in community-based program delivery
- Be immersed in effective global health and eye care programs
- Be inspired to become a leader in global health
- Join a movement of social innovators committed to global health and sustainable development
- Be engaged in ethical, high quality and high impact volunteerism

Contact: volunteers@uniteforsight.org, <http://www.uniteforsight.org/volunteer-abroad>

'Tis the season for giving and sharing!

At Hoosier Hills Food Bank, we need YOUR help to sustain us throughout the holiday season when our volunteer supply shrinks, but the need increases! Help us during our Repack sessions to package prepared foods into freezer bags rescued from local restaurants and cafeterias.

Below is a list of dates we could use your help. Please let me know as soon as possible if you can join us!

- Monday, December 8 @ 5:30pm
- Monday, December 15 @ 5:30pm
- Monday, December 22 @ 5:30pm
- Monday, December 29 @ 5:30pm

All Repacks take place in the kitchen of Hoosier Hills Food Bank at 2333 W. Industrial Park Dr. Repacks last about an hour to hour and a half. You will be oriented when you arrive for the shift. Bring your family! Bring your friends! Classmates! Members of your faith! Civic Group! Or, come by yourself!

For more info: volunteer@hhfoodbank.org

Life a House Built: The Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter Work Project

When: Monday, December 22nd, 11 pm

Where: WTIU

This documentary film tells the extraordinary story of Jimmy and Rosalynn Carters' 25-year involvement with Habitat for Humanity. Using the massive 2008 Blitz Build along the Gulf Coast as the centerpiece, the film celebrates the 25th anniversary of the Jimmy & Rosalynn Carter Work Project from its humble origins in New York City to the global reach it has today. It is an inspiring story of how one man's inability to ignore the vast need he encountered has since brought thousands of strangers together from across the globe and changed the lives of thousands more.

Want to Get Involved? Enhance Your Leadership Skills? Apply to be a Career Ambassador!

Career Ambassadors will serve as Career Development Center and Arts & Sciences (CDC/ASCS) goodwill representatives and providers of quality outreach support for their peers.

Responsibilities

- Promote the CDC/ASCS by educating your peers about the resources and services available to help them achieve their career goals

- Attend events, career fairs, and career programs
- Conduct career-related presentations at the CDC/ASCS, residence halls, classrooms, and student organization meetings
- Propose ideas from a student perspective to areas/teams in the CDC/ASCS
- Develop a comprehensive understanding of the career development process and CDC/ASCS services
- Increase campus awareness of services and events
- Assist in the training of future Career Ambassadors

What are the Benefits to you?

- Building professional and transferable skills to add to your resume
- Developing job search skills and strategies to achieve career goals
- Expanding networking opportunities with employers who come to campus
- Increasing leadership, presentation, and advising skills that employers will find impressive
- Learning more about your own career development process and how to effectively market your experiences and degree
- Be an integral part in helping to develop and improve CDC/ASCS programming currently and in the future
- Acquiring first-hand knowledge of a career in the field of higher education or student services
- Free food and employer freebies as available

Apply through your myIUCareers account at IUCareers.com

Indiana University Career Development Center and Arts & Sciences Career Services For more information, contact Crystal Smith at 812-856-3128 or smith838@indiana.edu

Hello IU Student Groups, Greek Organizations, and Academic Departments!

Please join us for the GREATEST event taking place on Martin Luther King’s Birthday (your day off of school, EVERYONE’s day on for service):

The Hoosier Hills Food Bank Block Walk Challenge!!!
Monday, January 19, 2009

Sign up a team from your organization and TAKE THE CHALLENGE. How much food can your group collect for the Food Bank? More than any other organization? Put your team to the test!!! Set up food drive barrels, collect from your classmates and neighbors, organize a fundraiser and buy the food, or choose a BLOCK and WALK door to door asking for food. However you get your food is up to you!

Join us on MLK Day (January 19) for a culminating celebration with all organizations involved to celebrate MLK’s life, discuss hunger in Bloomington, and weigh in all the food. The team with the greatest amount of food collected (based on pounds) will win an award, media recognition, and a picture on our Block Walk Wall of Fame!! This event is an incredible philanthropic opportunity to rally your fraternity, sorority, or student group, and advocate for those in need on this historic day of service! If you are interested in joining this INCREDIBLE event, SIGN UP NOW! (Remember, January 19 is just a week into spring semester. Don’t wait until after the holiday break!)

Reply to this email (volunteer@hhfoodbank.org) or email our ACE, Jenn Jameson at jamesonj@indiana.edu.

And

Join us for a brief Block Walk Orientation (at least one leader per team required to attend) Sunday, December 6 at 6pm in the Oak Room of IMU.

A Day ON, Not a Day Off

My name is Shawna Meyer from the Boys and Girls Clubs of Bloomington Main Unit. Every year we celebrate MLK Jr. Day as a Day ON, Not a Day Off. Our facility is open for our Members (ages 6-18) to be educated on the many accomplishments of MLK Jr. himself, as well as learning to accept and appreciate diversity. If you would be interested in serving more than 150 of our local community children and families this MLK Jr. Day please let me know! Groups/volunteers can set up programs, run arts & crafts, create and implement activities, play basketball with the kids, or so much more! This event is a great opportunity for students and groups alike to educate, interact, and enjoy diversity. Our kids are deserving of such great skills and input that the IU community has to offer. Please let me know of your interest as soon as possible so that I can plan accordingly! Thank you!

Shawna Meyer-Niederman
Program Director
Boys & Girls Clubs of Bloomington
812-332-5311

ORGANIZE THE HOPE

2009 Great Lakes Regional Conference

February 20-22, Chicago

This victory alone is not the change we seek - it is only the chance for us to make that change. And that cannot happen if we go back to the way things were. It cannot happen without you, without a new spirit of service, a new spirit of sacrifice.
-President-elect Barack Obama, Chicago's Grant Park, November 4, 2008

The Organize the Hope Great Lakes Regional Conference will bring together students from around the region to:

- * learn organizing tools and fresh ideas for campus activism
- * get tips on how to effectively use the media to publicize your issue
- * have an opportunity to collaborate with other student activists
- * take part in the creation of the ³Organize the Hope Fellowship² for student activists

All expenses paid in Chicago by the American Friends Service Committee. Participants will need to fund their way to Chicago. If you already belong to a student organization on campus, funds for conferences may be available to you. Check with your Student Organization Office.

TO APPLY, CONTACT ANNA AT ASPRINGER@AFSC.ORG or AT 312.427.2533 ext. 25.
APPLICATION DEADLINE JANUARY 16, 2009.

Sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee, a Quaker organization that includes people of various faiths who are committed to social justice, peace and humanitarian service. Its work is based on the belief in the worth of every person and faith in the power of love to overcome violence and injustice.

"Student Activities"- the Office for Student Organizations and Leadership Development
Indiana Memorial Union room 371

<http://sao.indiana.edu>
(812) 855-4311